Rules of the Road

Please remember that while riding in a large procession, a mistake by one can affect many others. A "one for all and all for one" mentality is vital for the safety of all.

While enjoying your ride in today's ride, please abide by the following rules:

DO NOT leave the procession. However, if you experience a mechanical malfunction, are fatigued, or need to make an emergency stop: Signal to the rider to your right to gently slow down and let you move in front of them. Then leave the procession TO THE RIGHT SIDE ONLY.

DO NOT stop to help a friend or other rider. There are safety personnel and tow vehicles who will take care of those requiring assistance.

DO NOT PASS while in the procession. There will be motorcycle police officers escorting the procession. It is very important that you STAY IN YOUR LANE. Promptly obey signals or directions given by the escort officers.

There will be police officers monitoring the procession. For the safety of all, those choosing not to follow the rules will be required to stop and leave the procession.

Let's all have a fun and safe ride!!!

THE UNDERSIGNED HAS READ AND UNDERSTANDS THE "RULES OF THE ROAD".
